

The Christ Community Center – “Who We Are” – Gail Newbury

It is said, “The truth will set you free.” So I set out to find the truth. I started in Rochester, NY then Sedona, AZ, then Santa Fe, NM and now Grass Valley, CA. It is in Grass Valley, CA that I met Sam at an “A Course In Miracles” study group. His sharing of his personal spiritual experience of Christ, his unconditional loving nature and his wisdom led me to accept his invitation to open a spiritual center in Grass Valley. Thus The Christ Community Center came into physical form. The spiritual realm has also joined us and their presence is strongly felt. Under Sam’s guidance and by the grace of God, the veils that hid the truth from me are being removed, one at a time. It is my desire that individuals will be drawn, as I was, to experience the Christ within, have truth revealed and be as God created them.
