

The Christ Community Center – “Who We Are” – Gail Newbury

It is said, “The truth will set you free.” So I set out to find the truth. I moved several times; experiencing various spiritual practices and beliefs. The search for truth ended in Grass Valley, CA.

In 2017 I met Sam Voight and under his guidance, as my teacher, I came to realize the truth was in me all the time but covered up by my unwillingness to examine and remove the human blocks established by my ego.

In 2018 Sam invited me to partner with him to create the Christ Community Center in Grass Valley, where I am the Associate Director. It is my desire that individuals will be drawn, as I was to experience the Christ within, have truth revealed and be as God created them.
